

Albania: TSO co, power utility KESH and DSO co to submit request for prices change

Categories : SEE Energy News

Date : October 2, 2014

Albanian grid operator TSO company (Transmission System Operator) submitted the request to Albanian energy regulator agency ERE for an increase of price of electricity transmission services.

The request consists of a 10% increase in transmission tariff. Also, it is expected that energy company KESH and DSO company will also submit the request for price changes. ERE will decide the price after submission of all claims it was confirmed to Serbia Energy.