

Thermal power plants company Nikola Tesla from Obrenovac (TENT) will invest 600 million of euros in projects that will increase the environmental protection, till 2017th-says Petar Knezevic, the director of this company.

Knezevic said that those projects would include the implementation of desulphurization system and