

Bosnia: State energy holding EPBiH looks for consultant for 13,3MW HPP Kovanici project on Bosna River

Categories : SEE Energy News

Date : May 22, 2013

EPBiH announced a call for research of consultant services' interests for construction of HPP Kovanici on Bosna River.

EPBiH has received loan from German KfW developmental bank and these assets were provided by German Government. International competition with prequalification will be used during the consultant election.

Deadline for application delivery for interests' expression is 14th June 2013.

HPP Kovanici is circulating dam planned to be with 13,3 MW of installed power and 65GWH of planned annual production.

Investment is 34MEUR worth, according to estimations and planned beginning of construction is 2015.