

Regulatory Commission for Electricity in Federation BIH has decided today that the transitional period of market opening for electricity supply to qualified customers will last until January 1, 2015.

By that time qualified buyers can use the services of freely chosen supplier in the market, or (if they haven