

Chinese are interested in the construction of second unit of Pljevlja thermal power plant

Categories : SEE Energy News

Date : July 17, 2012

Chinese companies should construct the second block of thermal power plant Pljevlja. Project is designed to be joint venture of two countries, and it would cost about 330 million of euros. How will this project affect A2A presence and ownership in Montenegrin energy power company?

That investment relates to the construction of the second block and expansion of the Coal Mine, discovers Montenegrin