

Besides giving up of the consortium Marathon Oil and OMV from exploration and exploitation of oil and gas in the Adriatic, not even Croatian owned oil company INA, which received a concession on two southernmost Adriatic exploration fields, has not yet made a decision on whether sign a contract with the Government.

Consequently, it is possible that only one agreement be signed the Adriatic, one with ENI in a consortium with British Medoilgas, as well as six contracts for exploration on land, along the Sava and the Drava River in eastern Slavonia - Nigerian Oanda, Canada Vermilion and company INA. , transmits Serbia-energy.eu