

US conglomerate “General Electric” (GE) also begins to strengthen its presence in the segment of renewable energy sources on the Croatian market.

The first purchaser of this wind aggregates is the Austrian company RP Global. They will deliver 12 wind aggregates wind total power of 34 MW for its wind farm Rudin near Dubrovnik, and this order also includes the maintenance contract for a period of fifteen years.