

For the delivery of electricity on 11 September, the hourly volume of 942 MWh was traded what makes the record volume traded for a single hour since the start of the intraday market on the Croatian electricity exchange (CROPEX).

The highest hourly volume was registered for the delivery of energy from 21:00 to 22:00 in the amount of 942 MWh. In 168 separate transactions in that hour, volume weighted average price amounted to 407.56 euros/MWh.