

Croatian Telecom (HT) announced that it has received permission of from energy regulator agency HERA for performing the electricity supply.

For more information concerning further activities in this area Hrvatski Telekom shall promptly publish after making specific business decisions, stands in a brief statement.

In this way the HT will compete in the retail market where the HEP, GEN-I and RWE Energy are already present, which, together with wholesale trade was increased by 861 million kunas, to 11.6 billion kunas last year.

Source; Serbia Energy See desk