

Dalekovod manufactures transmission lines, substations, low-voltage network equipment, fibre-optic cable equipment, suspension and jointing equipment, contact networks, lighting and reflector pylons, metal structures and antenna pylons.

Croatian power transmission equipment maker Dalekovod, said on Friday it has signed a 7 million euro ($7.7 million) deal with Norwegian company BKK NET.

Dalekovod said in a filing to the Zagreb bourse it has been hired to build the 420 kV Kollsnes-Mongstad transmission line.

The project delivery deadline is December 2016.

BKK NET, active in the production, distribution and sale of electricity, operates 32 hydro electric power plants and has over 190,000 clients.

Dalekovod manufactures transmission lines, substations, low-voltage network equipment, fibre-optic cable equipment, suspension and jointing equipment, contact networks, lighting and reflector pylons, metal structures and antenna pylons.