

Electricity and gas market in Czech Republic, good experience which can be implemented in Balkans market

The electricity industry is dominated by three vertically integrated companies (CEZ, E.ON and PRE) that hold both a license for electricity distribution and for supply. These three suppliers