

 Serbian President Boris Tadic stated in Smederevo on Thursday that the Serbian government will invite a tender for a strategic partner for the Smederevo steel mill, adding that the government's decision to stand behind the plant will prove right and profitable.