

Italian Bonatti Group announced that it will be building the new Naphtha Complex at the Motor Oil's refinery in Corinth. The construction project has been assigned by Motor Oil and it is part of a broader development plan. The completion of the project is expected in March 2022. Bonatti has already worked in Greece, where it implemented the Greek section of the Trans-Adriatic (TAP) gas pipeline.