

 In order to contribute to overall efforts to overcome the difficult electro-energetic situation in the country, already on Friday, February 10, Philip Morris Operations a.d. reduced electric power consumption by 70% in its Nis-based factory.