

Israeli BIG Shopping Centers Group in entering Romania's RES market, as its Hungarian subsidiary BIG Energia Holdings has bought a project company that is developing a 102 MW wind farm in Braila county in eastern part of the country.

The statement from the group said that the wind farm will consist of 17 wind turbines, with 6 MW output each, while investment in the project will amount to 102 million euros, in addition to 7 million euros paid for the project company.