

Bankrupt Serbian company Engreen made a second sale attempt - the bankruptcy supervisor for Engreen has put the company for sale through the public collection of bids. After the previous sale attempt failed, launched last September, this one also failed to attract any offers. The most valuable property of the bankrupt company includes the project documentation for construction of seven small hydro power plants (SHPP): Gostunac, Gradac, Kolovrat and Brodarevo in Prijepolje, Zupanj on the Raska river, Igris in Kraljevo and Ravna Gora in Ljubovija. Estimated value of the company's property is around 1.5 million euros.
