

Institute for research and design in the industry from Belgrade has begun the implementation process of ISO 55001 in the Subsidiary "Thermal Power Plants and Mines Kostolac", said the Institute.

Cooperation between the Institute and the Subsidiary Company "TE- KO Kostolac" on implementation of the ISO 50001 standards - Energy Management System will allow to increase energy efficiency, reduce costs and decrease their negative impact on the environment, consistent with respect for this company mission, which makes sure supply of all customers with electricity and heat energy and coal, under the most favorable market conditions, with constantly improving the quality of services, complete business and environmental protection, said in a statement.