

In the middle of 2013th, two solar power plants should be constructed near Sremska Mitrovica, in which 20 workers will be employed.

These will be the first solar power plants that will deliver electricity to EPS in the next 15 years, on the basis of contract that should be signed.

The representatives of Slovak company