

Slovenian electricity distribution system operator SODO announced the results of the auction for the purchase of electricity to cover the losses in the distribution network and balance supply for 2022, held on 23 April on the Euromarket trading platform in cooperation with BSP Energy Exchange. The auction was initially scheduled for 18 April. The price of electricity that will be supplied to SODO reached 53.55 euros/MWh, without VAT.