

Speaking with Gazprom: the role and influence in SEE power markets, new trends and perspectives

Categories : News Serbia Energy

Date : September 10, 2012

Gazprom, leading Russian energy company and one of the main suppliers of energy to European Union, has clear business development strategy for the region of South East Europe. South Stream project will influence not only EU power market but also the region of SEE and transit countries will benefit. Historically