

The plans of Serbian Electric Power Company management board, investments and renewable energy projects

Categories : Uncategorized

Date : May 25, 2012

At the meeting that was held on May 24th in Bajina Basta, the members of the expert-consultative council of Electrical Power Industry of Serbia were informed in detail about realization of the power balance in 2011, plan of investments, projects related to renewable energy, but also about performing operations on the revitalization of the